

The Herald and News

ANYTHING ANYWHERE.

Brief Paragraphs giving some of the happenings of the World of News.

Mrs. D. A. Switzer, a white woman living near Roebuck, committed suicide, by opening an artery in her leg with a razor, on Sunday morning. She sent her children to Sunday School, wrote a note to her husband, saying that life had been a failure to her and asking him to take care of her children, and then went into an out-house nearby and ended her life. She was of an excellent family and is related to a number of prominent people in Sparta. She was 35 years of age and in the best of health.

The Court of Sessions convened in Laurens yesterday with eight murder cases on the docket.

Three white men and eight negroes were killed in a race riot at Littleton, near Birmingham, Ala., Sunday night. The riot was caused by several negroes attacking a white woman, and the refusal of the negroes in the community to deliver the assailants to a posse of white men. The negroes have captured a powder magazine, are strongly fortified, and are determined to resist all attempts at arrest. Further loss of life will probably result.

James Younger, one of the famous Younger brothers, and a compatriot of Jesse James, committed suicide in St. Paul, Minn., on Sunday by shooting. Younger was paroled from the Stillwater penitentiary where he and his brother Coleman were serving life sentences for participation in the Norfolk bank raid in 1876. Since his parole he had led an exemplary life. He left a letter to the press giving as a reason for his act despondency over continued ill health. It appears that he was in love with a lady whose folks objected to their marrying.

A VERY RUDE BIRKBEER.

A Texas Saloon Man Knocked Carrie Nation in the Gutter Because she Does not Behave Like a Lady.

Mrs. Carrie Nation arrives in Austin, Texas, on last Thursday and attempted to take charge of a saloon on 5th street and Congress avenue, and landed in the gutter as result. Alderman Bill Davis, proprietor of the place, was present at the time and the reformer immediately turned her attention to him, but before she had proceeded far in her abuse of saloon men and their occupation. Alderman Davis asked the visitor who she was and commanded her to leave the place.

"I am Carrie Nation, sir," said she, "and was never known to leave a saloon hell until I got good and ready."

"I am sorry, Carrie," replied the proprietor, "but it makes no difference who you are; one of us has got to go out."

Mr. Davis stepped from behind the bar and, upon Mrs. Nation's refusal to vacate, he caught her by the back of the neck and one arm and threw her bodily into the street, and her scotch immediately followed her.

After being ejected Mrs. Nation spoke on the sidewalk until the crowd was dispersed by the police. She was forced to take the train out of town for her next stopping place.

NO JUDGES TO BE ELECTED

By the General Assembly This Year—Interesting Facts.

[The State.] The legislature which will be sworn in next January will be entrusted with the election of a number of officers of State institutions, but it is worthy of note that unless something not now contemplated should happen there will not be a single vacancy in the circuit bench to be filled during the next two legislative years. There will be one vacancy on the Supreme court bench, that of Hon. Y. J. Pope, but he will in all probability have no opposition.

Following are the dates on which the terms of the justices and the circuit judges expire:

Supreme Court—Hon. Y. J. Pope, August 1, 1904; Hon. Henry McIver, chief justice, August 1, 1906; Hon. Eugene B. Gary, August 1, 1908; Hon. Ira B. Jones, August 1, 1910, having been re-elected this year for a term of eight years.

Circuit Judges—Hon. Ernest Gary, June 7, 1905; Hon. D. A. Townsend, December 15, 1905; Hon. R. C. Watts, February 14, 1906; Hon. Geo. W. Gage, February 15, 1906; Hon. James Aldrich, February 16, 1906; Hon. C. G. Dantzer, February 16, 1906; Hon. R. O. Parry, December 8, 1906; Hon. J. C. Klogb, December 22, 1906. The term of each of the circuit judges is four years. Judge Purdy has been holding special courts under appointments by the governor, but he does not succeed to Judge Buchanan's seat until the 8th of December next.

Experience and observation are our best teachers, hence the necessity to visit the next State Fair.
